General William J. Donovan,
Donovan, Leisure, Newton, & Irvine,
2 Wall Street, New York 5, New York.

Dear General Donovan:

I do not think you will be surprised to find that I am in Washington giving some aid to the organization which you so brilliantly founded and directed.

I am writing pertaining to [redacted] who addressed a letter to you dated 22 January 1948. What I would like to ask is, have you any notion as to his stability and soundness of conclusion? The idea he presents certainly has general interest and I believe if you think it worthwhile, we will be interested in having someone go up to [redacted] New Jersey, to have [redacted] give some concrete proposals.
